HISTORY

Angelic Wonders was established in 1994 by Gail Henstock, still a partner in the business today. The company's original core business was manufacturing angels in soft pastel colours from a range of materials, including plaster of paris. Working from her garage, Gail's niche marketed pastel coloured angels ensured that she enjoyed huge success and business boomed.

In 2000, Angelic Wonders moved to premises at Drostdy Park in Uitenhage and the following year, Gail's daughter Judith joined her in the business. The mother-daughter team identified their own unique niche in the market and, they soon gained a reputation for gorgeous, unique room and table décor, with particular focus on weddings. While they originally formed close long-term partnerships with the Uitenhage-based Flower & Gift Shop and Aneen's Florist, today they also work closely with a range of other florists.

Thanks to their increasing success, Angelic Wonders began to expand, particularly within the draping arena, as clients began requesting extensive, complex draping, with particular demand for draped roofs within venues. While the bridal market remained a strong focus of the business, their reputation also began to attract the attention of a number of prestigious corporate clients.

Angelic Wonders offer clients exclusive tailor-made décor, which can be made up within just two weeks if required, thanks to their in-house production and manufacturing team. This includes seamstresses, welders and other specialist prop makers. Angelic Wonders in-house laundry facility ensures crisp, clean linen and other décor for all occasions.

Today, Angelic Wonders is located in peaceful, scenic premises on Kragga Kamma Drive, Port Elizabeth and has a staff complement of 21 people. Their attractive showroom is easily accessible and they see brides by appointment each Wednesday, while corporate clients are seen by appointment on request.

ANGELIC WONDERS MISSION AND VISION

Mission

Angelic Wonders is a niche event décor company that is committed to offering our clients and partners a superior quality, service and value that can be trusted.

Angelic Wonders mission is to provide our clients with incomparable service and product quality to exceed every expectation. We believe that because of our exceptional delivery, you will not need inventory therefore saving the cost of carrying inventory.

JOINT VENTURES

In conjunction with Siya Sebenza Angelic Wonders is recruiting the unemployed to train and aid them in finding work. We help them to do so by creating job opportunities by offering training at Angelic Wonders to help them gain experience in the working world, so that they have the confidence to take initiative in their lives and find a career to prevent South Africa of being a poor nation and encourage others to do the same.

With our angelic creations that come from the passion to create wonders we too have the passion to help create a poverty free South Africa; for all people to be seen as equals in the working world and to be given a chance to start a career in order to live a more fulfilling life.

We strive to offer a genuine working experience in order to brighten the future's of those of whom we train. Angelic Wonders the place to be; not only for world class décor but world class experience for a successful and brighter future!
