

OUR WORKFLOW

With our extensive assortment of services that includes graphic and website design as well as the variety of promotional products and services we provide, you should consider us as your partners in design when planning your next marketing campaign. The following steps are implemented to ensure that the design process is as seamless as possible. It is of the utmost importance and guarantees that the job is perfectly done in time to meet the deadline.

THE DESIGN BRIEF

AdWorx Design Studio wants to deliver precisely, according to your unique needs therefore we will discuss your project, the goals and how we can assist you to achieve it.

THE QUOTATION ESTIMATE

You will receive a detailed quotation estimate with a number of options to choose from regarding your specific design needs, as well as a comprehensive proposal regarding your project and it will include the type of information we require to start the project.

THE DESIGN

We will start with the project once all the information requested and the minimum required confirmation of payment is received.

DEVELOPMENT OF THE PROJECT

You will receive a design draft and can make adjustments and alterations where needed as described in the project development schedule.

FINAL DESIGN

Once the design is completed it will be delivered as agreed as soon as the outstanding balance of your account is settled.

Each project is unique and therefore the structure may differ depending on the requirements for a specific project