- Does your child have an inquiring mind?
- Does your child think out-of-the box?
- Does your child question the answers rather than answer the questions?
- Does your child excel in certain areas and lag in others?
- Does you child get bored at school?

Your child may need our nurturing environment for enquiring minds!

Cawood Academy is a small independent primary school based in Hillcrest. We cater for each individual child's special needs, in small classes in a homely environment. When mainstream schooling is not sufficient..... Cawood Academy is your best choice.
