A male scent created from unmatched aromas gives Andro Vita For Men Pheromones its distinctive character. The actual secret lies in the use of diligently picked pheromones, which exert a subliminal effect on women. Not only do our customers report their own visible results, they were reinforced by independent scientific studies. Pheromones can help you enrol women into conversations faster, intensify an existing relationship, or increase your success in business. Which is no surprise, as these messenger substances signal our sociableness to our fellow men as well as our physical status quo. Daily hygiene often washes these messages away, which thus are misinterpreted. Andro Vita For Men can make this level of communication work!
