

FHH Consultants offer a wide range of recruitment, human resources, industrial relations and payroll focused services. We endeavour to be an employment agency with a difference. Innovation and integrity are our two foremost business pillars, and this is why we have grown to be who we are today.

Recruitment

The FHH Consultants team have created a vast database made up of reliable and professional candidates in all disciplines. Our database is comprehensive and we have candidates available for temporary, permanent and contract positions. Our database is continually updated to ensure all of our candidates are still available and active. The FHH Consultants team believe that recruitment is not simply our job, it is about engaging in personal and professional possibilities. All of our candidates receive a comprehensive and thorough reference check, their qualifications are verified and criminal checks and ITC checks are performed. We make sure that we always find the ideal candidate for our clients.

Human Resources, Industrial Relations and Payroll

Our staffing solutions are not limited to just recruitment and placement, but also include payroll, specialist industrial relations (IR) and human resources (HR) practices encompassing CCMA / bargaining council representation up to conciliation and dispute resolution; chairing of disciplinary enquiries, performing human resource (HR) audits and designing of staff management solutions, performance evaluation and production management systems. We aim to always exceed our clients' expectations and have been doing so since the very beginning of our business.

It is our company's ethos to always listen to our clients' and to provide the most appropriate recruitment solutions.

It is our mission to exceed our clients' expectation through our highly specialised recruitment and HR services. Our experience has given us in-depth knowledge in a variety of work disciplines and our educated approach to all that we do has equipped us with an unparalleled understanding of business environment requirements.

We offer a comprehensive human resources service that extends to making sure that you find the talent that will grow your organisation, retain staff and create a healthy working environment, which can be tailored to your business, as all businesses have different needs and different sets of employees.

For the best staffing solutions, look no further than FHH Consultants