OUR LIFE ENTERTAINMENT

What defines entertainment?

1a : amusement or diversion provided especially by performers hired a band to provide entertainment.

b : something diverting or engaging: such as. (1) : a public performance. (2) : a usually light comic or adventure novel.

The entertainment industry (informally known as show business or show biz) is part of the tertiary sector of the economy and includes many sub-industries devoted to entertainment. Entertainment is a form of activity that holds the attention and interest of an audience or gives pleasure and delight. It can be an idea or a task, but is more likely to be one of the activities or events that have developed over thousands of years specifically for the purpose of keeping an audience's attention. Generally, the entertainment industry includes the fields of theater, film, fine art, dance, opera, music, literary publishing, television, and radio.

Entertainment is important as it brings people together and is a good way for the entire family to bond. It diverts people's attention from their demanding lives and amuses them in their leisure time. Entertainment brings happiness, which is a fundamental and powerful medicine that aids health and wellbeing. Good entertainment helps guests have fun. When guests have fun, they engage better with others and learn more. The energy of the event increases and the mood becomes a very positive one. Carefully selecting entertainment is important. Normal life can be stressful, and people need to relax. Being entertained by others is a wonderful way to take some time out of life. It can reduce stress and make life's issues easier to face. Even just a few hours can make a big difference.

Being a full service video Entertainment and production company means being dedicated to creating an end product that not only meets expectations, but produces results. It means building brands, empowering innovation and facilitating creativity through a talented team of individuals.

Inspirational & Motivational Speakers

A motivational speaker is someone with an amazing life story to tell – but it isn't just the story itself that will motivate the audience, it is the way they tell it and the passion behind it that makes their speeches all the more inspiring. This is even more important during this period, where audiences want to be inspired to reach new heights and conquer the adverse challenges we face. Motivational speakers may specialize in speaking to children, teenagers, students or professionals, and they may also specialize in certain topics, such as dealing with drug or alcohol abuse, building self-esteem, resolving conflict, improving communication or productivity and so on.

Do you want to motivate your audience at an upcoming virtual event or business meeting? Are you looking for an inspirational story to lift spirits and pull the team towards one objective? Booking a motivational speaker will help you achieve all those objectives!

A speaking fee is a payment awarded to an individual for speaking at a public event.

Motivational speakers, businesspersons, facilitators, and celebrities are able to garner significant earnings in speaking fees or honoraria.

Between - R 200 per hour – R 1 000 per event.
