Word of God Seminary Rules and Regulations:

Administration fees are attached with the Seminar Application form with banking details for payments. These costs are fully payable on completion of your studies, before you will receive recognition in the particular study course.

Registration / Admission fees are payable in advance, before a Student number will be allocated and study material will be available from your Lecturer.

The assigned Lecturer in your area will handle all communication regarding your studies, different study courses available and costs involve.

This cost is only applicable for administration/registration and study material. It does not include any tuition fees and yearly graduation costs, for example “Gowns and Morta Board Caps”. Please note that the Gowns can be hired but the Morta Board Caps must be bought.

Minimum requirements for WoGS students is to be able to write, read and speak English.

All students need to fill out a "New Seminary Application" each year for the prospective study course/s, whether Certificate / Diploma or Degree. This will make administration easier; ensure proper record keeping of all enrolled students, which are important for the yearly student Graduation.

There are different payment options available on request from your WoGS or affiliated satellite school lecturer. These payment arrangements need to be made at your earliest with the affiliated satellite school or Seminary Office.

Subject evaluation will be done by WoGS board on referral from your WoGS Lecturer or affiliated satellite school, whereby any of the subjects for evaluation must be referred to the Seminary for credit where applicable.

Only the prescribed "Final Examination Answer Sheet" to be used by students sitting for examination, which then must be handed in for marking. Online/distance learning students examination will be done on the online platform.

Should you have any further enquiries regarding your relevant study course, you are welcome to contact your WoGS Lecturer, applicable affiliated satellite school or the Seminary.

Note: We have a strict "NO REFUND POLICY" on all Fees, which means that all fees paid to WoGS remains NON-REFUNDABLE to the student. This includes all deposits made for: Registration Fees, Tuition Fees, Administration Fees, as well as Graduation Fees.

- All mentioned qualification levels as well as all post-degree studies done through "Word of God Seminary" are a "Word Knowledge" qualification and not "Academic".
- Course fees to be paid in full and course to be completed to be recognized for graduation.
- Course material will only be forwarded if fees are paid up to date.
- Each page to be initialed and final page signed in full
