Choosing the Right Spiritual Service

Different clients seek guidance for different reasons. A consultation should begin by identifying the concern clearly rather than automatically choosing the most expensive service. Psychic Muhammad Musa offers private consultations covering relationships, personal direction, spiritual concerns and life decisions.

Love & Relationship Guidance

Suitable for: communication problems, emotional distance, reconciliation concerns, marriage uncertainty, jealousy, relationship interference and separation fears.

Available services include Love Attraction Guidance, Relationship Healing Consultation, Marriage & Commitment Guidance, Bring Back Lost Lover Consultation, Stop Breakup or Divorce guidance and Third Party relationship guidance.

Psychic Readings

Suitable for: clients looking for personal insight about love, family, career, major decisions or general life direction.

Reading options include Accurate Psychic Reading, Deep Life Reading, Tarot Card Reading, Astrology Reading and Life Path & Destiny Reading.

Spiritual Cleansing & Energy Guidance

Suitable for: people seeking spiritual reflection, a sense of balance, emotional calm or guidance around concerns they interpret as negative or blocked energy.

Available options include Chakra Balancing & Alignment, Energy Balance Consultation and Reiki & Energy Healing.

Career & Life Guidance

Career and financial guidance is intended to help clients reflect on personal direction, decisions, habits and mindset. Spiritual guidance should complement—not replace—qualified financial, business or career advice.

What Happens During a Consultation?

- 1. Initial discussion: Explain the main concern and what you would like clarity about.
- 2. Service selection: Choose the consultation or guidance service appropriate to your situation.
- 3. Private consultation: Discuss the concern in a confidential setting, either online or in person.
- 4. Guidance: Receive spiritual or personal guidance relevant to the consultation.
- 5. Next steps: Decide whether any further consultation is appropriate.

Before You Book

Prepare the main questions you want to discuss. Avoid making important medical, legal or financial decisions solely on the basis of a psychic or spiritual consultation. Where a matter requires a licensed professional, seek appropriate professional advice.

Private & Online Consultations

Clients can enquire about in-person appointments in Durban or online consultations. Confirm the service, current price, appointment time and payment arrangements before the consultation begins.
